The R&B double bill features 112 and their mellow, comforting harmonies that have been popular with audiences for more than two decades. Showcasing his own contributions to the contemporary R&B scene, the multi-talented Jon B will perform major hits that have only added to his credits as a songwriter, producer and actor.

Hailing from Atlanta, Georgia, 112 generated excitement among fans immediately following its members' graduation from high school. Their successes from the late 1990s into the early 2000s included "Only You" (featuring The Notorious B.I.G.), "Anywhere" and the Grammy Award–nominated single "Peaches & Cream." The group most notably won a Grammy Award in 1997 for Best Rap Performance by a Duo or Group, for "I'll Be Missing You" (alongside Faith Evans).

Prior to his rise to fame as a performer Jon B was a successful songwriter, penning songs for After 7, Toni Braxton, Michael Jackson, Color Me Badd, the Spice Girls and others. His popularity began in the mid-1990s when he released his debut studio album titled Bonafide. The album spawned the popular hit and Grammy-nominated single "Someone to Love" selling over 1 million copies and featuring Grammy Award–winning artist Babyface.
