TULALIP, Wash. (August 30, 2021) - Tulalip Resort Casino announces the return of great live entertainment and sports viewing with the re-opening of the newly transformed Canoes Cabaret starting September 9.

Long a favorite destination for live entertainment spotlighting top regional dance bands, the 8,000 square-foot venue has been transformed with the latest in audio and visual entertainment upgrades and sparkling new finishes. Paying homage to our region's waters, the Cabaret's fresh new décor features glittering glass tile and wall coverings, atmospheric color-changing lighting, starlight ceiling panels, watercolor inspired carpeting and sleek new dual bars.

Beginning in September the Cabaret will again spotlight entertainers serving up memorable '70s funk, '80s new wave, classic rock tributes and performances of today's hits. Viewing of Seattle football regular season games are also on the bill with match-ups against Indianapolis, Tennessee and Minneapolis. (See the complete schedule for September below)

The Cabaret also offers table reservations with variable pricing options. From a night out for two or group events, it's a great venue to celebrate special occasions. The Cabaret features Thursday night Ladies' Night, happy hour specials, and special events every month.

Returning favorites performing at the Cabaret in September include:

- The Afrodisiacs hit the stage in their authentic '70s disco costumes and dance favorites originally performed by the Bee Gees, The Commodores, The Village People and many more.
- Harmonious Funk performs its special brand of Top 40 and cover music from the '80s, '90s, early 2000s and today.

- Mr. Pink covers five decades of music ranging from Madonna to Lady Gaga to Pit Bull, all produced with a Millennial mash-up remix flair.
